Marriage Tip

Laughter, when shared, is a healing balm. Share jokes today. Does your family have any stories about family foibles that get repeated at family gatherings? It doesn't matter that it's embarrassing; it becomes family mythology!

Souvenir Books of the Bi-centennial Anniversary of the Church in Western Canada:

In your bulletin today, you received a bilingual brochure describing the two souvenir books that are being published in this anniversary year. See the flyer for details. These books are available in French or English in hardcover or softcover. You will find inserted, an order sheet with a price list of the 6 items available.

These books include memories that every family will be proud to own. You can purchase them for yourself or to give as gifts to friends and family members. The comic book, illustrated by Robert Freynet, is also a very attractive gift to young people.

Stewardship Reflection

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time - June 10, 2018

"And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand." Mark 3:25
Do your parish ministries complement each other or do they compete against each other? Is your parish "one Body of Christ" or a bunch of little, separate ministries controlled by human ego? The goal of all parish ministries is to bring people to Christ. All of our parish work should be for the glory of God's name, not for the glory of our own name.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

June 10th, 2018

Jesus' Battles

There is a lot of action in St. Mark's Gospel. Beginning with Chapter 1, Jesus starts his career and experiences immediate success. The crowds are fascinated by his ability to heal the sick and his power over demons that flee at his command. But beginning with Chapter 2, Jesus' actions begin to be noticed as he challenged the most important people in his society: the Pharisees, the scribes and even his family! He claimed to be able to forgive sins (2:5). The scribes declared this was blasphemy! He shocked others by associating with people of questionable reputations (2:16) and whose lifestyles were contrary to that proposed by the great prophet, John the Baptist (2:18). Yet the most serious was Christ's attitude toward the Sabbath, which was sacred in Israel. He dared to do prohibited acts on this day of total rest (2:23; 3:5) and even declared that the Son of Man was Lord even of the Sabbath (2:28) Small wonder from the beginning of his career those in authority were plotting his death. (3:6).

A long and dangerous battle

However, Christ was not an ambitious young rabbi who was bent on climbing to the top of the social ladder! He is the One in whom God's power was manifested as never before. John the Baptist recognized him as the One who is more powerful than I (1:7). Infused with the power of the Holy Spirit, not only did Jesus announce God's reign, but that he was the One who would establish this reign on earth. Not by military or political force, as many expected, but by touching and healing hearts and preaching against violence, pride, hypocrisy and lies.

Christ's approach was not unanimously accepted. Far from it! Jesus ignited fierce opposition. On one hand, the Pharisees felt their domination and control over the consciences of Jewish believers had been threatened. On the other hand, his family feared suffering the consequences of conflicts with the Jewish authorities that Christ's actions and words provoked. His family decided to bring him back to his Nazareth workshop. Then, even more dangerous, scribes from the capital, Jerusalem, declared that he was possessed by the devil.

What did Jesus do when he faced all this opposition? He didn't insult those who opposed him. He continued the dialogue and tried to make them discover the novelty and beauty of his message. He said that because of him, Satan and the forces of evil have lost the battle. Humanity's relationship with God, our Creator, would be completely restored.

The battle continues...

Even today, the battle continues... Ambition, thirst for power, exclusion, me first! Materialism often rules our lives, guides our decisions, and inhibits the growth of God's reign. When we are caught up in the same battle as Christ faced, we must never forget two things. First, we have won the battle! Evil has been vanquished forever by Christ's death and resurrection. Second, as Jesus did, we are willing to take risks, extend our hand in friendship, and engage in patient dialogue.
