September 13 – Saint John Chrysostom

Saint John Chrysostom lived from about 347 to 407. Born in Antioch, he was trained as an orator. In 374 he joined a community of hermits but returned to Antioch due to poor health. In 386 he was ordained and appointed preacher for the bishop. Famous for his eloquent sermons, he was named Archbishop of Constantinople in 398 and began a program of reform. Uncompromising in political and ecclesiastical affairs, he made enemies who eventually contrived to have him exiled. To avoid an uprising, John was taken away in secret, but died on the journey. After his death, he received the title 'Chrysostomos' ('golden mouth') in tribute to his powerful preaching. He is a patron of preachers.

From the creation learn to admire the Lord! Indeed, the magnitude and beauty of creation display a God who is the artificer of the universe. He has made the mode of creation to be our best teacher.

St. John Chrysostom

September 16 – Saint Cornelius and Saint Cyprian

When Cornelius was elected pope during the Decian persecution (250-51), the Roman See had been vacant for many months following the martyrdom of the previous pope, Fabian. A priest named Novatian tried to usurp Cornelius' place as Bishop of Rome. Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, supported Cornelius, his friend and ally, and the teaching of Novatian was condemned in a synod. In 253 under renewed persecution, Cornelius was arrested and banished. He died in exile the same year.

Cyprian of Carthage is an important figure of the early Church. Brilliant and learned, he became a priest soon after his conversion to Christianity and in 249 was elected bishop. When the Decian persecution began, he went into hiding and supported his flock by letter. In 257 persecution was renewed under Valerian. Cyprian, one of the first arrested, was banished. In a retrial a year later he was condemned to death.

If we are the children of God, let us be lovers of peace – St. Cyprian

Dad Jokes:

Host at a restaurant: "Do you have reservations?"

Dad: "Yeah, but I think we'll still eat here."

"Why do graveyards have gates? Because people are dying to get in."

"Where do you take someone who's been injured in a peek-a-boo accident? To the I.C.U."

What do you call a row of bunnies moving backwards? A receding hare line!

"Everything I have is yours." Luke 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son, we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do you really want to turn your back on all that God offers in exchange for material wealth that has no lasting value? God wants us to be happy on earth as well. But, that requires us to freely accept His gift of faith; putting Him first in all things and detaching from our own self-sufficiency.
