For religious sisters and consecrated women – We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times

Let us pray: - For an end to the pandemic.

 February 20, 2022 - 7th Sunday of Ordinary Time

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back...” (LUKE 6:35)

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

 Marriage Tips

St. Jane Frances de Chantal was a wife and mother who was widowed at age 28. Today, pray for those who have lost a spouse, and look for a concrete way to support them.

 Synodal Consultation

The Vatican recently issued a press release offering an assessment of the synodal process. There is much movement at the global level and people are reporting that this is a joyful and transformative experience. Click here to read the full press release. You can still participate in the synodal process by organizing a conversation. For more information visit our website.

What's It About?

As you have certainly heard, Pope Francis has asked the Church to take some time to reflect on how we are living synodality. The goal of this synod is to live a shared experience of mutual listening and courageous sharing. With the Holy Spirit, and those around us, we are called to set aside time for dialogue. Each diocese will submit a synthesis of the conversations that take place, which will nourish the conversations that will take place at the next Synod of Bishops in October 2023. The resources you will need to enter into the synodal process are found on the website. We ask that you submit a summary of your discussions by April 29, 2022.

PRIORITIES

Morality is doing the right thing, regardless of what you are told. Fanatic religion is doing what you are told, regardless of what is right. (from H.L. Mencken)

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time C - February 20th, 2022

“Love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful” (Luke 6:35-36).

May the Lord fill our hearts with his love and mercy!
