* April 24, 2022 - Sunday of Divine Mercy

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

"Anxiety is the greatest evil that can befall a soul except sin. God commands you to pray, but He forbids you to worry."* St. Francis de Sales

2nd Sunday of Easter C - April 24th, 2022

* Archbishop LeGatt's Easter Greetings - These high holy days of the Easter Triduum are not only holy in and of themselves, but they are holy because they call us, too, to grow in our own virtue, holiness, and journey to God. Truly, our world is suffering through these turbulent times. The darkness may at times seem overwhelming. But this Easter, Archbishop Albert calls us to reflect on those lights that are present in our lives, those signs of hope and love, even small, that are the imprint of God's love for all of creation. Even in the darkest of times, Christ's light shines ever stronger.

From all of us at the Archdiocese of St. Boniface, we wish you and yours a truly happy and blessed Easter. Truly, he is risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

* Parenting Teens in Uncertain Times – FREE 10-Day Virtual Summit – April 25 to May 4, 2022

We are in the midst of a mental health crisis for children. Most (75%) teens globally feel the future is frightening, and many do not want to bring children into the world. There is a great movement of National Mental Health organizations that is trying to let people know and encourage taking action. Parenting Teens in Uncertain Times is a ten-day watch on demand summit that furnishes information and practices to increase connection with your family, reduce stress and anxiety and work through difficult emotions.

Catholics will take particular note of the April 27 presentation, Compassion from a Christian Lens, with Sister Joyce Rupp, O.S.M. and Michael Danzansky. For information, and to participate, click here.

☺ Baptism - After the Baptism of his baby brother in church, little Johnny sobbed all the way home in the back seat of the car. His father asked him three times what was wrong. Finally, the boy replied, "That priest said he wanted us brought up in a Christian home, but I want to stay with you guys."

Jesus, I Trust in You!

“Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world”.

“For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world”.

The Lord's Promise: “The souls that say this chaplet will be embraced by My mercy during their lifetime and especially at the hour of their death”. (Diary – Divine Mercy in My Soul #754- St. Faustina)
