18th Sunday in Ordinary Time C – August 3rd, 2025

Pope’s prayer intention for August 2025 - For mutual coexistence –
Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons.
Let us pray: - For the conversion of Christians, especially those of our parishes.
- For peace among all nations.

Come and Embrace Our Lady's Hope! Diocesan Pilgrimage in St. Malo – August 17, 2025
Jubilation! Everyone is invited to the diocesan pilgrimage to the Grotto of Notre-Dame-de-Lourdes in Saint-Malo on August 17. This special Marian celebration will be an opportunity for praise, healing and joy. All the more so as we are in the middle of a Jubilee year and the Grotto is an official shrine of the Jubilee 2025.

Mass in French will be celebrated at 9am. Mass in English will be celebrated at 11am. There will be an opportunity for confession before each Mass. After each Mass, you will be able to buy food from a vendor on site.
At 2 p.m., we invite you to prayers of healing, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the rosary and songs of praise.
Bring the whole family! Bring your grandparents and elders! By car, or preferably by van, and even better by parish bus, to avoid overcrowding the car park.
Tell your friends! Bring your own picnic chairs! In case of rain, the celebrations will be held at the church in Saint-Malo. Visit our Grotto webpage!

 COME & DISCOVER ‘WHO IS SAINT CARLO ACUTIS?’

GOOD NEWS! The first saint of the millennium, Blessed Carlo Acutis, will be canonized a saint on September 7 by Pope Leo XIV.
From September 17 to 29 inclusively, Louise Normandeau will be offering dynamic multimedia presentations on Carlo Acutis. There will be: a short video, about Carlo's life; a Powerpoint presentation about Carlo, his life, his family and why he will be canonized a saint; a guided tour with explanations of the paintings of the Eucharistic Miracles, click here, as well as the painting of Carlo's intact body; veneration of Carlo's relic that his mother gave to Mrs. Normandeau. You can come up to look at and touch the relic (which is in a small reliquary) and entrust your prayer intentions to Saint Carlo.
THE TESTIMONIAL from many of those who attended the presentations is: 'This is an event NOT TO BE MISSED!'
ALL PRESENTATIONS WILL BE IN FRENCH, EXCEPT ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2025 (presentation will be in French with translation to English). For further information, contact: Gabrielle Marion, gmarion3@mytmts.net or 204-470-3792.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time C – August 3rd, 2025

“Though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions”

Today, Jesus confronts us with what is fundamental in our Christian life, in our relationship with God: to get rich before him. That is, to fill our own hands and heart with all kinds of supernatural and spiritual goods of grace, and not of material possessions.

This is why, in the light of today's Gospel we can wonder: what do we fill our heart with? The man of the parable saw it quite clearly: “rest, eat, drink, be merry!” (Lk 12:19). But this is absolutely not what God expects from his good sons. The Lord does not want our happiness to rely upon legacies, banquets, latest model cars, exotic holidays, estates, our armchair, beers or money. All these things may be good, but they cannot satisfy per se our yearning for the plenitude of our souls, and, consequently, we should employ them only as the means they simply are.

This is the experience of St. Ignatius Loyola's, whose celebration was yesterday. This is how he admitted it in his own auto-biography: “When he thought of worldly things, he delighted in them, but when he gave them up, dead bored, he felt sad and empty; when he thought, instead, of the penances he observed in the just men, he felt solace and comfort, not only in that very moment, but even afterwards, he felt contented and cheerful.” And this can also be our own experience.

Because material and earthly things become outdated and expire; but, spiritual things are eternal, they last forever and are the only ones that can fill our heart and give a meaning to our human and Christian life.

Jesus said it very clear: “You fool” (Lk 12:20), this is how He qualifies those who only have material, earthly and selfish aims. Let us beg we may always present ourselves before God, at any time, with our hands and heart full of our efforts to seek our Lord and to look for what is pleasing to him, for this is the only thing that will take us to Heaven.
