13th Sunday in Ordinary Times A – July 2nd, 2023

Prayer Intention for July 2023 –

For a Eucharistic Life – We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

Let us pray: For the conversion of Christians, especially those of our parishes.

For peace among all nations.

Parish life:

+ Father Peter will be attending Knights of Columbus organizational meeting and celebrating mass for the Knights of Manitoba and North Dakota State in Peace Garden on the weekend of July 8 and 9. Father John Te Nguyen will be replacing him for all the weekend masses.

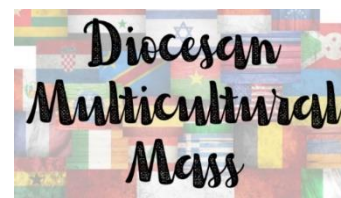

+ Marriage Tips

Intentionality applies to word choice as well. When you are talking to your spouse, make sure your tone and language reflect love. Avoid accusatory or defensive language and use unique language that lets your spouse know she/he is special.

+ Reflections for the separated/divorced

When Jesus was in His public ministry, He had little time to Himself. The people He served were needy, much like children. It was difficult for Him to have any time alone, even with His apostles. But Jesus found His rest, consolation and strength in communicating with His father in prayer. If you are feeling overwhelmed, try some creative ways to fit prayer into your busy schedule. This could be getting up earlier each morning, or when the kids are asleep. Even pausing at noon for a few brief moments of prayer will help you find your rest and refreshment in God. – From A Road to Healing by Lisa Duffy

 World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly - Sunday, July 23

The third World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly will be celebrated this year on Sunday, 23 July 2023. Pope Francis inaugurated this World Day to be celebrated by the universal Church each July, either on or near the liturgical Memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, grandparents of Jesus, to help “treasure the spiritual and human wealth that has been handed down from generation to generation.”

The theme chosen by Pope Francis for this year’s World Day is “His mercy is from age to age” (Luke 1:50), highlighting the relational interconnection between old and young. This theme is particularly well suited to the upcoming World Youth Day in Lisbon, August 1-6, 2023.

The CCCB Standing Committee for Family and Life, in collaboration with its corresponding Office, produced a 30-second video that captures a group of high school students visiting a retirement home. This heart-warming interaction between young people and the elderly illustrates this year’s theme and encourages us to find concrete and creative ways of drawing closer to the elderly. A priest tells his bishop:

“Father Magrume, an old farmer, had come to see me to complain that a stranger, probably someone from the village, had entered his chicken coop at night and had stolen two hens from him. I castigated this act, in my sermon, adding: we will now proceed with the collection, I urge this dishonest individual to refrain. Under no circumstances does the church want to accept money from a chicken thief.

"And then," asked the bishop, "they gave him back his chickens to your farmer?"

– No, but on the other hand, for the first time since I exercised my ministry, that day, no one refrained from giving to the collection.

“...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.” - Matthew 10:38

Pope Benedict XVI said “The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness”. “Comfort” puts me first. “Picking up your cross and following Jesus” puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!
