16th Sunday in Ordinary Time C – July 20th, 2025

Pope's prayer intention for July 2025 - For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

Let us pray: - For the conversion of Christians, especially those of our parishes.

- For peace among all nations.

Come and Embrace Our Lady's Hope! Diocesan Pilgrimage in St. Malo – August 17, 2025

Jubilation! Everyone is invited to the diocesan pilgrimage to the Grotto of Notre-Dame-de-Lourdes in Saint-Malo on August 17. This special Marian celebration will be an opportunity for praise, healing and joy. All the more so as we are in the middle of a Jubilee year and the Grotto is an official shrine of the Jubilee 2025.

Mass in French will be celebrated at 9am. Mass in English will be celebrated at 11am. There will be an opportunity for confession before each Mass. After each Mass, you will be able to buy food from a vendor on site.

At 2 p.m., we invite you to prayers of healing, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the rosary and songs of praise.

Bring the whole family! Bring your grandparents and elders! By car, or preferably by van, and even better by parish bus, to avoid overcrowding the car park.

Tell your friends! Bring your own picnic chairs! In case of rain, the celebrations will be held at the church in Saint-Malo. Visit our Grotto webpage!

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time C – July 20th, 2025

"There is need of only one thing"

Today we see a Jesus as divine as human: He is tired of his journey and lets this family He loves so much welcome him into their home in Bethany. He will take advantage of this moment to let us know "what matters the most."

In the attitude of these two sisters we can detect two different ways of living the Christian vocation: the active and contemplative life. Mary "who sat beside the Lord at his feet," while Martha was busying herself with plenty of chores and all the serving, always happy, but tired (cf. Lk 10:39-40-42). Jesus tells her: "Easy, you worry and are troubled about many things, but you must have a rest, and even more, you must rest by my side, looking at me, listening to me." We must coordinate and integrate two different models of Christian life: to live Martha's way as much as Mary's way. We have to be attentive to the Lord's word, and, at the same time, alert for, more often than not, the noise and daily hustle and bustle which may hide God's presence. Because a Christian's life and strength can only stay firm and grow if he maintains close ties with the true vine, where his life, his love, and his yearning persist, not looking back from whence he came.

Most of us have been called by God to be like 'Martha'. But we should not forget that the Lord wants us to be more and more like 'Mary' too: Jesus Christ has also called us "to choose the better part" and to let no one take it from us.

He reminds us that it is not what we can do that is the most important, but rather God's word that enlightens our lives by imbuing our works and deeds with the Holy Spirit's love.

To rest in the Lord is only possible if we can enjoy the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Prayer before the Tabernacle! it is the greatest treasure we Christians have. Let us remember a sentence of one of Saint John Paul II's encyclicals: "The Church draws her life from the Eucharist." Our Lord has many things to tell us, many more than we think. Let us, therefore, seek those moments of silence and peace, to help us find Jesus again and, in Him, to find ourselves once more. Jesus Christ invites us today to take this option: to choose "the better part" (Lk 10:42).
