15th Sunday in Ordinary Time C – July 13th, 2025

Pope's prayer intention for July 2025 - For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

Let us pray: - For the conversion of Christians, especially those of our parishes.

- For peace among all nations.

PARISH LIFE:

Upcoming Liturgical Celebrations:

Invitation

Dear parishioners,

The members of the Parish Pastoral Council along with the Parish Economic Council and the Knights of Columbus invite you to a farewell celebration for Fr. Peter Le following his last mass celebrated in St. Claude on Sunday July 27th, 2025.

Archbishop Albert LeGatt will also be present. We will gather in the church yard for a picnic lunch. Please bring your favorite dish to share. In case of inclement weather, we will gather in the church.

Everyone Welcome!

Come and Embrace Our Lady's Hope! Diocesan Pilgrimage in St. Malo – August 17, 2025

Jubilation! Everyone is invited to the diocesan pilgrimage to the Grotto of Notre-Dame-de-Lourdes in Saint-Malo on August 17. This special Marian celebration will be an opportunity for praise, healing and joy. All the more so as we are in the middle of a Jubilee year and the Grotto is an official shrine of the Jubilee 2025.

Mass in French will be celebrated at 9am. Mass in English will be celebrated at 11am. There will be an opportunity for confession before each Mass. After each Mass, you will be able to buy food from a vendor on site.

At 2 p.m., we invite you to prayers of healing, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the rosary and songs of praise.

Bring the whole family! Bring your grandparents and elders! By car, or preferably by van, and even better by parish bus, to avoid overcrowding the car park.

Tell your friends! Bring your own picnic chairs! In case of rain, the celebrations will be held at the church in Saint-Malo. Visit our Grotto webpage!

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time C – July 13th, 2025

"A Samaritan was moved with compassion. He approached the victim. Then he lifted him up on his own animal"

Today, we ask ourselves: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). There is a story of some Jews who were curious to see their rabbi disappear during the Sabbath vigil. They suspected he had a secret, perhaps with God, and entrusted one of them with the task of following him. And so he did, filled with emotion, to a slum, where he saw the rabbi taking care of a woman and sweeping her house: she was paralyzed, and he served her and prepared a special meal for her for the feast. When he returned, they asked the spy: "Where has he gone? To heaven, among the clouds and stars?" And he replied: "No! He has gone up much higher."

Loving others with actions is the highest; it is where love is manifested. Do not pass by! "It is as if Christ Himself were crying out in these poor to beg the charity of the disciples," the Second Vatican Council states in a document.

To be a Good Samaritan means to change plans ("he approached him"), to dedicate time ("he took care of him"). This also leads us to contemplate the figure of the innkeeper, as Saint John Paul II said: "What could I have done without the innkeeper? In fact, the innkeeper, remaining anonymous, did most of the work. We can all act like him, fulfilling our own tasks with a spirit of service. Every occupation offers the opportunity, more or less directly, to help those who need it (...). The faithful fulfillment of one's professional duties is already practicing love for people and society."

Leaving everything to welcome those in need (the Good Samaritan) and doing one's work well out of love (the innkeeper) are the two forms of love that correspond to us: "Which...in your opinion, was neighbor?' 'The one who treated him with mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise'" (Lk 10:36-37).

Let us turn to the Virgin Mary and may She—who is our model—help us discover the needs of others, both material and spiritual.
