* Illuminate – June 20, 2025 in St. Claude

Evening of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament – All are invited to participate in a dynamic evening of adoration, praise & worship, reconciliation and fellowship on Friday, June 20 at 7:30 PM, at St. Claude Church. Come and worship Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament as part of a vibrant Catholic community. All are welcome! For more information, www.illuminatemb.com or facebook.com/illuminatemb. Illuminate is an evening of Eucharistic Adoration, Praise & Worship music, and fellowship, with the opportunity to take part in the sacrament of Reconciliation. See you there!

What is Illuminate? Illuminate is a ministry centered on adoration of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. We hope to invite people of all ages from across Manitoba to worship Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and come together as one Catholic Church. It was started by a group of young adults in 2013, and has put on over 80 events at parishes in Winnipeg, St. Boniface, and surrounding area since then.

The goals of this ministry are twofold. First, Illuminate desires to encourage people from all walks of life to enter into a real and intimate relationship with Jesus through adoration and worship, and by partaking in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Second, we envision that as a fruit of the willingness of parishes in both the Winnipeg and St. Boniface archdioceses to host Illuminate, a strong community of Catholic believers will become united and grow throughout the province. Each Illuminate evening includes a guest speaker to give a short meditation on the theme of the month; exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, worship music led by the Illuminate music ministry, reconciliation, a time of silence, and fellowship after the event.

Happy Father's Day to all the Dads!

Most Holy Trinity C- June 15th, 2025

“When he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth”

Today, we celebrate the solemnity of the mystery at the center of our faith, from where everything originates and to where everything returns: The mystery of the unity of God, and at the same time, his subsistence in three equal and yet, different Persons. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, unity in communion and communion in unity. In this great day, we must realize that this great mystery is ever present in our lives: from the very Sacrament of our Baptism—which we have received in the name of the Holy Trinity—to our participation in the mystery of the Eucharist, which is made for the glory of the Father, by his Son Jesus Christ, thanks to the Holy Spirit. And it is also the sign by which we Christians recognize one another: the sign of the Cross, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The mission of the Son, Jesus Christ, consists in the revelation of his Father, of whom He is the perfect image, and in the gift of the Spirit, which has also been revealed by the Son. Today, the proclaimed evangelic reading shows us: the Son receives everything from the Father in perfect unity: “Everything that the Father has is mine”; and the Spirit receives all that the Spirit is from the Father and the Son: “for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you” (Jn 16:15). And in another part of this same chapter: “When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me” (Jn 15:26).

From all that, let us learn the great and comforting truth: the Holy Trinity, far from being distant and aloof, comes to us, dwells within us, and transforms us in its interlocutors. And by this, through the Spirit, we are guided into the whole truth (cf. Jn 16:13). The incomparable “Christian dignity”, about which St. Leo the Great at times speaks, is this: to keep God's mystery within us and, thus, to celebrate here on Earth our own Heavenly “citizenship” (cf. Phil 3:20) —our abiding in the Holy Trinity's bosom.
