14th Sunday in Ordinary Time B - July 7th, 2024

Prayer intention for July 2024 - For the pastoral care of the sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

Let us pray: - For the conversion of Christians, especially those of our parishes.

- For peace among all nations.

Parish life:

+ July 14th Celebrations - Mass at the Grotto at 11:00 am followed by ceremonies at the Cenotaph and followed by a light lunch – weather permitting. Bring your lawn chairs.

+ We recommend to your prayers Henri Gauthier who passed away on Sunday, June 30, 2024, at the age of 96 years. Funeral services will be held at the St. Claude Church on Tuesday, July 9, 2024. Eulogy and video at 2:00 pm followed by Funeral Mass at 2:30 pm. Our condolences to family, relatives and friends who are grieving.

+ The Passion Play in LaRivière – at 7:30 pm on July 5th, 6th and 7th and July 12th, 13th and 14th 2024. See poster for more details.

+ Wedding rehearsal - Friday, July 12 at 6:00 pm in St. Denis.

+ Wedding of Mark Cormier & Sofi Silvestri – Saturday, July 13 in St. Denis church. Let us keep this young couple in our prayers as well as their families.

Summer Chapels Now Open

For those of us who go to the cottage or the campground, we can still attend mass to celebrate the Lord's Day. For information on the summer chapels in the Whiteshell and Lake Winnipeg areas, click here. To know the mass times in parishes located near campgrounds, click here. Some leaflets with this information can be found on the back tables.

* 4th World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly – Sunday, July 28, 2024

Pope Francis' theme this year is: “Do not cast me off in my old age” (Psalm 71:9). The Catholic faithful are invited to reflect on the loneliness of the elderly, encouraging us to “take a new path” and to spend time with them, “acknowledging their unique role in the family, in society and in the Church...” Click here for Pope Francis' message. The CCCB has prepared a toolkit of resources: an official logo, a catechesis on old age, recent texts from the Magisterium, the official prayer for the World Day, and pastoral suggestions. ## Prayer for Peace of Pope Francis

Lord Jesus,
we adore your cross
which frees us from sin, the origin of every division and evil;
we proclaim your resurrection,
which ransoms man from the slavery of failure and death;
we await your coming in glory, which will bring to fulfilment your kingdom of justice, joy and peace.

Lord Jesus,
by your glorious passion,
conquer the hardness of our hearts, imprisoned by hatred and selfishness;
by the power of your resurrection, save the victims of injustice and maltreatment from their suffering;
by the fidelity of your coming, confound the culture of death and make the triumph of life shine forth.

Lord Jesus,
unite to your cross the sufferings of the many innocent victims:
the children, the elderly, and the persecuted Christians;
envelop in paschal light those who are deeply wounded:
abused persons, deprived of freedom and dignity; let those who live in uncertainty experience the enduring constancy of your kingdom: the exiles, refugees, and those who have lost the joy of living.

Lord Jesus,
cast forth the shadow of your cross over peoples at war;
may they learn the way of reconciliation, dialogue and forgiveness;
let the peoples so wearied by bombing experience the joy of your resurrection:
raise up Iraq and Syria from devastation;
reunite your dispersed children under your gentle kingship:
sustain Christians in the Diaspora and grant them the unity of faith and love.

O Virgin Mary, Queen of peace, you who stood at the foot of the cross, obtain from your Son pardon for our sins;
you who never doubted the victory of his resurrection,
sustain our faith and our hope;
you who are enthroned as Queen in glory, teach us the royal road of service and the glory of love.

Amen.

“He was amazed at their lack of faith”

Today the liturgy helps us discover the sentiments of the Heart of Jesus: “He was amazed at their lack of faith” (Mk 6:6). Without a doubt, the disciples must have been impressed by the lack of faith of the Master's fellow citizens and his reaction. It seemed only natural that things would have occurred differently: They came to the land where he had lived for so many years, they had heard about the works he was doing, and the logical consequence was that they would welcome him with affection and trust, more willing than others to listen to his teachings. However, it was not so, but quite the opposite: “And they took offense at him” (Mk 6:3).

The amazement of Jesus at the attitude of his people shows us a heart that trusts in people, that expects a response and is not indifferent to the lack of it, because it is a heart that gives itself seeking our good. St. Bernard expresses it very well when he writes: “The Son of God came and did such wonders in the world that he uprooted our understanding of all that is mundane, so that we might meditate and never cease to ponder his wonders. He left us infinite horizons for the ease of the intelligence, and an overflowing river of ideas impossible to wade through. Is there anyone capable of understanding why the Supreme Majesty would want to die to give us life, why He would want to serve so that we could reign, live without a place to rest his head so that we can possess the world, and allow himself to be lowered to the most vile and vulgar to exalt us above all else?

One could think of how the lives of the Nazarenes would have changed if they had approached Jesus with faith. Thus, we must ask him daily as his disciples: “Lord, increase our faith” (Lk 17:5), so that we open ourselves more and more to let His love work in us.
