 Illuminate – June 20, 2025 in St. Claude

Evening of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament – All are invited to participate in a dynamic evening of adoration, praise & worship, reconciliation and fellowship on Friday, June 20 at 7:30 PM, at St. Claude Church. Come and worship Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament as part of a vibrant Catholic community. All are welcome! For more information, www.illuminatemb.com or facebook.com/illuminatemb. Illuminate is an evening of Eucharistic Adoration, Praise & Worship music, and fellowship, with the opportunity to take part in the sacrament of Reconciliation. See you there!

What is Illuminate? Illuminate is a ministry centered on adoration of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. We hope to invite people of all ages from across Manitoba to worship Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and come together as one Catholic Church. It was started by a group of young adults in 2013, and has put on over 80 events at parishes in Winnipeg, St. Boniface, and surrounding area since then.

The goals of this ministry are twofold. First, Illuminate desires to encourage people from all walks of life to enter into a real and intimate relationship with Jesus through adoration and worship, and by partaking in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Second, we envision that as a fruit of the willingness of parishes in both the Winnipeg and St. Boniface archdioceses to host Illuminate, a strong community of Catholic believers will become united and grow throughout the province.

Each Illuminate evening includes a guest speaker to give a short meditation on the theme of the month; exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, worship music led by the Illuminate music ministry, reconciliation, a time of silence, and fellowship after the event.

How often do you pray for your spouse? Remember, marriage was made by God to help bring both you and your spouse to Heaven, but you two can't get there without God's help.

Body and Blood of Christ C – June 22nd, 2025

“Give them some food yourselves.”

Today is the greatest day for a Christian's heart, because, after celebrating the institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday, the Church now is trying to exalt this revered Sacrament, to make us adore it without limit. “Quantum potes, tantum aude...” (dare to do your best): This is the invitation St. Thomas Aquinas makes us in a wonderful hymn of praise to the Eucharist. And, in a most admirable way, this invitation sums up what our heart's feelings should be before Christ's true presence in the Eucharist. To reciprocate such a humble, hidden, and so impressive gift, whatever we can do will never be enough. The Almighty Creator of Heaven and Earth hides under the Sacramental species and offers himself to us as the food that feeds our souls. He is bread of angels and food of wayfarers. And it is the bread of life we are being abundantly given, just as the bread, to feed and strengthen those following him, was miraculously multiplied and distributed without any measure: “They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets” (Lk 9:17).

In front of this overabundance of love our reaction can never be stingy. An attentive and deep gaze of faith to this Divine Sacrament, must necessarily give way to a grateful prayer and to a passionate heart. In his sermons, St. Josemaria Escrivá used to repeat the words a certain venerable bishop addressed to the priests he had just ordained: “Treat him well for me, treat him well!”

A quick examination of conscience will help us realize what we must do to treat Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament more delicately: the cleanliness of our soul—it must always be in grace to receive him—, the correctness of what we wear—as a sign of love and reverence—, the frequency with which we come closer to receive him, the number of times we visit him in the Tabernacle... Our attentions with our Lord in the Eucharist should be countless. Let us fight to receive and treat Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament with the purity, humility and devotion of his Blessed Mother, with the spirit and the fervor of the saints.
